Ladies and Gentlemen:

Based upon information you provided, and assuming your operations will be as stated, we have determined you are exempt from Georgia income tax under Georgia Code Section 48-7-25.

Donors may deduct contributions to you in the same manner and to the same extent as for Federal purposes.

This letter does not exempt you from Georgia withholding tax on employees, sales tax or any taxes which might be required by our Labor Department.

You are not required to file Georgia income tax returns unless you are subject to tax on unrelated business income. In that event, you are required to file Georgia form 600-T.

If you are required to file an annual return with the Internal Revenue Service, such as form 990, you are required to file a copy of the return with the Georgia Income Tax Division.

Please keep this letter in your permanent records.

Very Truly Yours,

Larry Childers, Tax Conferee
